

Culture Days 2019 in Sutton

September 27, 28 and 29

Je suis Sutton / I am Sutton

This activity is built around the new mission of Arts Sutton: space/territory/society. Join in and help make a collective canvas that reflects the body and soul of our regional culture. Whether participants use paint, coloured pencils or other media, everyone will have a chance to make their mark and demonstrate the vitality of our community and its visitors. Arts Sutton invites us to investigate how we inhabit this territory and how it in turn inspires or influences our perceptions.

- For all.
- Friday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m., Saturday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m., Sunday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m.
- Arts Sutton, 7 Academy Street

Meet the author Johanne Seymour (in French)

Venez discuter avec Mme Johanne Seymour et ainsi en apprendre davantage sur son parcours professionnel et sur le métier d'écrivain. Johanne Seymour est auteure de Rinzen: la beauté intérieure, deuxième opus de la série Gyatso sorti à l'automne 2018 et finaliste du prix Arthur-Ellis 2019 du meilleur roman policier de langue française. En plus de ses romans, elle a écrit quatre nouvelles. Elle est également la fondatrice du Festival international de littérature policière, Les Printemps meurtriers de Knowlton (2012-2016).

- Pour adultes
- Vendredi 19:00 à 21:00
- Bibliothèque Municipale et Scolaire de Sutton : 19, rue Highland

Tribute to filmmaker Pierre Falardeau (in French)

Venez lire et entendre des textes de Pierre Falardeau ou des écrits sur ce cinéaste décédé il y a dix ans (25 septembre 2009). Un pianiste fera les enchaînements entre les lectures. Concepteur de l'exposition sur Falardeau présentée au Musée des communications et d'histoire de Sutton, Richard Leclerc expliquera la démarche entreprise pour la créer, avec l'aimable collaboration de la conjointe de Pierre, Manon Leriche.

- Pour tous. Inscriptions nécessaires : pour les lecteurs, identifiez svp le texte choisi. info@musedesutton.com / 514-891-9560
- Samedi 16:00 à 18:00
- Musée des communications et d'histoire de Sutton : 32, rue Principale S.

From another country

Here in Sutton, we constantly meet people from other cultures who have chosen to become Suttoners. They will tell us about their journey. Beyond their differences, what have they brought with them and preserved: what knowledge, ways of doing, and traditions? How have they expressed their attachment to their values and beliefs? What role did nature, Sutton's landscapes and the host society play in their new life? But above all, what dreams, what projects have they managed to achieve in Sutton?

This activity is organized by Heritage Sutton.

- For all.
- Sunday 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.
- Sutton Junction Community Hall : 128 ch. du Mont-Écho

SPM j'écoute ! / SPM I'm Listening!

With their Société SPM j'écoute! show, Mademoiselle Linda and Greta, two clowns, immerse us in a many-faceted yet engaging world, looking at it from different and sometimes novel perspectives. Through their friendship and their mission of keeping everyone safe, they foster a culture of cooperation. With their whimsical and sometimes wacky efforts, they create a connection with the community and encourage people to look after their surroundings. Their language is a non-verbal one of gestures (actions and reactions). After the show, the artists meet with their audience to discuss the performance and creativity in general. People can ask questions and find out more about what moved these performers to work so imaginatively and create the show.

- For all.
- Sunday 2 p.m. – 4 p.m.
- D'Arts et de rêves Parc culturel et résidence d'artistes (cultural park) : 57
Principale Nord Street
